

THE IPV PLATFORM

Get paid on the care you deliver. Then grow.

Turn slow personal-injury receivables into working capital — and grow your practice.

$ Predictable cash flow

Stop financing settlement timelines out of pocket. Convert slow PI receivables into capital you can deploy now.

+ Capacity to take more PI

With funding in place, accept more personal-injury patients without the cash-flow strain that usually caps volume.

⚖ Structured your way

Advance against receivables or sell a portfolio outright — keep the upside that fits your practice.

★ Backed by scale

A national platform with a 12-year track record managing personal-injury receivables.

📁 One integrated platform

IPV funds providers against verified receivables and manages collection to settlement — aligning provider liquidity with disciplined, case-level underwriting.
